

East Park October Newsletter for Parents and Carers October 2023

What's been happening?

- ★ We've had an amazing time in the Art Room working on our Rainforest Project
- ★ Pupils are working hard on qualifications through SQA and JASS under the guidance of our new Raising Attainment Coordinator
- ★ We were on the telly celebrating our SQA success
- ★ Parents attended a Makaton training day to boost our communication skills
- ★ Cabinet Secretary Jenny Gilruth visited us to find out about what we do
- ★ Ecodrama visited to perform Whirlybird
- ★ We came runner up in the Success Looks Different Awards
- ★ We've revamped our Book Nook

Rainforest Art! Parrots, toucans and fabulous colours – we've had a great time!

Jenny Gilruth, Cabinet Secretary for Education and Skills, came in for a visit – we were delighted to show off our school ☺

School staff report that Seesaw is working really well – if you need any support in accessing the app or content for your child, please email amy.little@eastpark.org.uk

Everyone loved the Whirlybird Performance by EcoDrama ♥

It has taken a while, but we finally have some road signage up in front of the school. Hopefully road markings will follow soon!

We were delighted to come runner up in the Success Looks Different awards! This award really matters to us because winners were selected by the Inclusion Ambassadors – a group of young people supporting this vital area of work 😊

We have had lots of bright new signage added to the front of the building – Nathan was thrilled to see himself ❤️

Thomas gave the refreshed Book Nook his seal of approval ★
